HAL KALTMAN, 1941-2012

Hal Kaltman, past president of the Textile Association of Los Angeles and a mentor to many, died peacefully in Las Vegas on May 24.

A longtime member of the apparel and textile community in Los Angeles, Kaltman was known for his tireless work on behalf of many apparel-industry philanthropies, including the Fashion Industries Guild of Cedars-Sinai Medical Center, Save a Life and the Merchants Club for the City of Hope.

A familiar face in the industry and in the California Market Center, where his company, Hal Kaltman Textiles, was based, Kaltman was known to many as the public face of TALA. Kaltman was diagnosed with an inoperable brain tumor. He spent several weeks in the hospital in Las Vegas, where he was visited by a steady stream of family and friends.

Los Angeles remembrance service, hosted by The Family of Hal Kaltman, will be held June 22nd in the Fashion Theater in the CMC 10:30am, service will begin at 11:00am. Donations in memory of Hal, to the Fashion Industried Guild Project #218385, can be mailed to: Cedars-Sinai 8700 Beverly Blvd., Suite 2416, Los Angeles, CA 90048.
